

The Inner Strength Of The Demon

Master

It's all about survival
These times are filled with fear
We're waiting for tomorrow
Or will it soon disappear

The inner strength of the demon
Must be harvested at once
Whether or not you believe in him,
It may be your only chance

Your weapons have all be provided,
Specifically all been fine tuned
No one can help you decide
If you have a reason to choose

The inner strength of the demon
Must be harvested at once
Whether or not you believe in him,
It may be your only chance

Watch out for the creatures
As you're crawling through the fog
The decaying landscape
Could prevent you from even carrying on
Just use the knowledge they've prepared you
With for all your life
