

Through Your Eyes

Masterplan

Look at me father as I take a stand How could I build you up with my empty hands Listen please mother
this is my voice Can't do no other
it's my blind eyed choice

This is my freedom
this is my choice
Time is coming I'm the future so much more to discover Sailing my ship
across the seas

[CHORUS]

A moment from now
when I walk through that door
The world is changing again
And I know I will fall
on my way to nowhere
I'm trying to find my home
Oh no, Trying to find my way home

Hear me, my first born I'll let you go
Time is running
No more chance before the night is over And who is gonna save you if you're fighting alone

[CHORUS]

A moment from now
when I walk through that door
The world is changing again
And I know I will fall
on my way to nowhere
I'm trying to find my home
Trying to find, one more time
Oh no

[SOLO]

[CHORUS]

A moment from now
when I walk through that door
The world is changing again
And I know I will fall
on my way to nowhere
Oh no
