

Take A Shot At The Clown

Masters of Reality

Take a shot at the clown
Don't worry he's down
His life is a joke
Can't hurt you he's broken
He prayed once to god
God gave him the nod
"just do like you do
We're lauging at you"
Hahahaha
Take a shot at the clown
Don't worry he's down
His life is a joke
Can't hurt you he's broken
Don't worry he's broken
Don't worry he's broken
Apart
Gods on the roof cast a shadow
No living proof from the sun
Remember when mothballs were candy
You wouldn't take shit from no one
