

Boulder

Mat Kearney

Walking softly through coffee and memories
Know that I'm the sentimental one
Blocks we're building were falling like children
I know that I don't know what we'll become

Today they shut the door (Ah-ah-ah)
Something so much more (Ah-ah-ah)
Than any box could hold
Wrecking ball can roll from our hearts (Ah-ah-ah)
Watched you get older
But you can't stop the boulder when it starts

Moved to Nashville to find a record deal
Found something you can't sign away
And every change makes something to celebrate
Something that'll never be the same

Today they shut the door (Ah-ah-ah)
Something so much more (Ah-ah-ah)
Than any box could hold
Wrecking ball can roll from our hearts (Ah-ah-ah)
Watched you get older
But you can't stop the boulder when it starts

Made a mark but a shot in the dark won't
Hit everything that you want
In every ending they say there's beginnin'
I know that I'm the lucky one

Today they shut the door (Ah-ah-ah)
Something so much more (Ah-ah-ah)
Than any box could hold
Wrecking ball can roll from our hearts (Ah-ah-ah)
Watched you get older
But you can't stop the boulder when it starts
Love makes you bolder
But you can't stop the boulder when it starts
Watched you get older
But you can't stop the boulder when it starts
