

Two Hearts

Mat Kearney

You take me out to the garden,
On our backs under the fiery sky.
You said this feels like falling,
When all I've ever known is goodbye.
In the shadow of the floodlights
I kiss your cheek as you held my side.
We've been running down a feeling,
Crashing into the black and white
In the middle of the night.

Two hearts flying out together like there's
One love holding us forever in this
Cold world ain't it so much better when two hearts bleed into o ne
In young love.

I keep the car running,
Catch your eye as the screen door slams.
There's my heart coming,
Pretending there's no sweat on my hands.
Maybe we'll just keep on driving,
Take this baby on out of this place.
I close my eyes and I'm flying
Feel the thick against my face, against my face.

Two hearts flying out together like there's
One love holding us forever in this
Cold world ain't it so much better when two hearts bleed into o ne
In young love.
In young love.
In young love.
It's like we never see heartbreak or goodbyes
Just the stars shining in our eyes
Love is such a simple song and it's waiting for you just to dro p your guard

See in us is believing and Running right through the ceiling and Coming around like the evening sun
In Young Love
