

About Face

Mat Kerekes

Fame, I guess you have it
I wasn't looking for you, but there you are
If I would have it, I would've never have sang the words
But here I am
I swear I would've never have sang the words

A taste, don't want to have it
Don't want a part of what you are anymore
A bad habit
You would've never have seen my hurt
But there you are
I swear I would've never have sang the words
