Goodbyes

Mat Kerekes

My heart is cold
For those who haven't noticed it at all
Boneless, but I manage my lonely summer nights

But only tonight
I'll know what it's like to be honest
And I'm wasting time just writing my thoughts down I guess

If it were up to me I wouldn't be hopelessly out of reach
Saying all my goodbyes

You told me I'm gone a lot and I don't show up enough
You said someone told you that I'm just not good enough for the run

But only tonight
I'll know what it's like to be honest
And I'm wasting time just writing my thoughts down I guess

If it were up to me I wouldn't be hopelessly out of reach
Saying all my goodbyes
