

My Lucky #3

Mat Kerekes

Yesterday I felt alive enough
On the pavement, everything spins
Spent my day trying to get that feeling back
Well last night I had my fair share of drugs
In the air where everything spins
I'm peeling skin and nothing comes to mind

Headlights are steady glowing
The rain is softening

There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this
There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this
There's a hole in our heads for the sake of it
There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this
Where you are
Where you wanna be is where you are
Where you are
I've got some thoughts that need a pick me up

Well late at night I spend some time with you
But you're still caught up in your head
You got that sundress on again and you're dancing
You're dancing, you're dancing, you're dancing
Well last night I had my fair share of love
On the pavement spilling my blood
I'm still surprised that you didn't come to mind

Spits from the others shouting
The rain is comforting

There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this
There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this
There's a hole in our heads for the sake of it
There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this
Where you are
Spill your blood until you're where you want
Where you are
I've got some scars from the night I was
Where you are
(There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this)
The years will change and you're still where you were
(There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this)
Where you are
There's a hole in our heads for the sake of it
I knew I loved you when you fell in love
(There's a hole in our heads when it comes to this)

This shadow I've been under
I feel it empty me
