

Bloom

Matilda Mann

Duh-duh-duh-dum (Duh-duh-duh-dum)

Duh-duh-duh-duh, duh-duh-dum

Duh-duh-duh-dum (Duh-duh-dum)

Don't be surprised when you open your eyes
And you find there's no one to hold
Thought I could stay but I'm just in the way
And this feeling's now gettin' old

Too young to make our promises made
That I'll go wherever you go
Safer to stay and wait for the day
'Cause I'll do it better alone

I'd like to stay and make it all okay
But it's just too soon and it's not me or you
Tell me if it's strange, and I'm maybe deranged
And you think it's a phase but I know that it's not
I met you too soon for anything to bloom

Don't be surprised when you open your eyes
And you find I'm suddenly gone
Gave you the signs and I walked on the line
For far too long

Too young to make our promises made
That I'll go wherever you go
Safer to stay and wait for the day
'Cause I'll do it better alone

I'd like to stay and make it all okay
But it's just too soon and it's not me or you
Tell me if it's strange, and I'm maybe deranged
And you think it's a phase but I know that it's not
I met you too soon for anything to bloom

Duh-duh-duh-dum (Duh-duh-duh-dum)

Duh-duh-duh-duh, duh-duh-dum

Duh-duh-duh-dum (Duh-duh-dum)

Duh-duh-duh-dum (Duh-duh-duh-dum)

Duh-duh-duh-duh, duh-duh-dum

Duh-duh-duh-dum (Duh-duh-dum)

I'd like to stay and make it all okay
But it's just too soon and it's not me or you
Tell me if it's strange, and I'm maybe deranged
And you think it's a phase but I know that it's not
I met you too soon for anything to bloom
