

Pure Madness

Matilda Mann

I've downed the drink and drowned in thoughts un-pure
And I'm taken by the way I thought I knew her did you hurt
Why did I never see what's there?
Too caught up in all her bright blonde hair

Twisted tales of perfect madness
There's a fine line between hope and sadness
Why did I never see what's there?
Too caught up in all these love affairs

Picture people untamed
We could be two of the same
So I started to stop looking for you
'Cause I know sure enough, I'll need you soon

We've always been like strangers
Still the sun won't get me 'cause
Why did I never see what's there?
Too caught up in all your blue eyed stares

Picture people untamed
We could be two of the same
So I started to stop looking for you
'Cause I know sure enough, I'll need you soon

So I started to stop looking for you
'Cause I know sure enough, I'll need you soon
