

Say It Back

Matilda Mann

There is so much I wouldn't do
To show you how much I love you
I'd jump off of a cliff then get back up

I'd quite my job to stay with you
I'd vote for who you tell me to
I'll wear whatever you decide is hot

Why don't you want me like that?
Why don't you want what we could have?
Why don't you say it?
Say it back

Why don't you feel the way I feel
How can you think this isn't real
Why don't you say it?
Say it back

I'd lie to everyone but you
I'd tell them your an angel
And if you committed murder I'd 'fess up

I'd walk through fire and hail and rain
Just to see your stupid face
Then sell my soul so you could buy a heart

What am I getting wrong
Am I short a degree?
You said I'm just your type
Everything that you need
But you still won't say it
Say it back

You're overthinking this
It's only three little words
Maybe you're just too scared
And don't wanna get hurt
I bet that you can't say it
Say it back

Why don't you want me like that?
Why don't you want what we could have?
Why don't you say it?
Say it back

Why don't you feel the way I feel
How can you think this isn't real
Why don't you say it?
Say it back
