

Heights

Matisyahu

said I been ripping through these lyrics, I been whipping through these words explain like physics leaving your vision blurred all them righteous men there is no need to worry crush the wicked in my way with these fists of fury I'm sorting rhymes all day everyday that's what I say I come with consciousness as my sword I slay all of them crazy murderers are bound to be prey knock, knock, socking evil man in a delay said a moonlight enlighten my way a twilight from the heights of my roof sing praise and poof

looking up to the night Ask for help to get up [x7] and right get up and right to get up to get up and right get up and right get up and right see git up and git up and right git up and him a dim a yo yo yo said me nah nah nah nah nah ah no it only brings me down burn away my brain, away my brain is too compound elevating my soul, purifying my sound like the son of a sun ray burning up through the clouds Torah food for my brain let it rain till I drown thunder, let the blessings come down. said Torah food for my brain let it rain till I drown Thunder, let the blessings come down.

Lord You found my soul, raised it up from the ground Yeah You found my soul, raised it up from the ground

I said a moonlight enlighten my way
a twilight from the heights of my roof I sing praise and poof
looking up to the night I ask for help to get up and get up and get up and get up and get it right
I said a moonlight enlighten my way
a twilight from the heights of my roof
I sing praise and poof
looking up to the night
I ask for help to get up and get it right

Yeah, bass man!

I'm dropping bombs on your moms yes unto your dismay open up a single way each and every day I sit back relax and listen to the music play with headphones on my ears yes I bob the head sway [?] and maybe rappin to your room explain like physics leavin your consciousness doomed boom in the mornin and the afternoon a moonlight enlighten my way a twilight from the heights of my roof

sing praise and poof
looking up to the night I ask for help to get up and get up [repeats]
