

Let It Go

MATOMA

Move me
Wanna move me
And use me how they want to
Own me
Wanna own me
They jump and I jump in, too

I'm not your puppet, I'm cuttin' all of my strings
I've had enough, and, no, no one can have me
I throw my hands up so they can't control me
No, nobody's got me

I'm gonna let it go
I'm gonna let it go
I'm gonna let it go

I'm here
Just to let go
But it echoes through my body
Listen
Don't wanna listen
I won't be another copy (nobody)

I'm not your puppet, I'm cuttin' all of my strings
I've had enough, and, no, no one can have me
I throw my hands up so they can't control me
No, nobody's got me

I'm gonna let it go
I'm gonna let it go
I'm gonna let it go

Never been this high
I don't wanna come down
I don't wanna come down
Lost in the lights
And alone in the crowd
And alone in the crowd
Never felt this free
Now I'm not tied down
Now I'm not tied down
Lost in myself
And I don't wanna be found

I'm gonna let it go
I'm gonna let it go
I'm gonna let it go
