

Sunday Morning

MATOMA

I probably shouldn't say this
Should keep it all inside
But maybe I'm just wasted
Enough to speak my mind, ah-ah

I've been wrestling with the darkness
Searching for a light switch
Tell me can you help me get through
I've been trying to find a reason
Drowning in the deep end
Can you tell me what I should do

I wanna feel high on a Sunday morning
I wanna feel like it's all brand new
I wanna feel strong when I feel like falling
I wanna feel everything you do
I wanna feel...
I wanna feel like it's all brand new
I wanna feel...
I wanna feel everything you do

Show me how you do it
I can see the light that's in your eyes
Tell me when the truth hits
How the hell did you not lose your mind

I've been wrestling with the darkness
Searching for a light switch
Tell me can you help me get through
I've been trying to find a reason
Drowning in the deep end
Can you tell me what I should do

I wanna feel high on a Sunday morning
I wanna feel like it's all brand new
I wanna feel strong when I feel like falling
I wanna feel everything you do
I wanna feel...
I wanna feel like it's all brand new
I wanna feel...
I wanna feel everything you do

I wanna feel high on a Sunday morning
I wanna feel like it's all brand new
I wanna feel strong when I feel like falling
I wanna feel everything you do
I wanna feel... (I wanna feel, I wanna feel)
I wanna feel like it's all brand new
I wanna feel... (I wanna feel, I wanna feel)
I wanna feel everything you do

I wanna feel high on a Sunday morning
I wanna feel like it's all brand new
I wanna feel strong when I feel like falling
I wanna feel everything you do
