MATOMA

Show is ending
But I don't wanna stop
Clocks are ticking
And even though
You said you're not forgetting me
How can I be sure that you'll remember me?
Early morning
Flight is taking off
Tears at boarding
Even though you
Say that this is everything
How can I be sure that it means anything?

I hate that you're not coming with me
And I hate that I'm not indifferent
I want you and I don't wanna share
So there
If we got feelings then why the game
If both lose then who's the winner?

I didn't think I'd care but wow
Who knew that I'd feel the way that I feel right now?
So head over heel for something so real and now
Our love is a ghost and that's how it goes, huh
Guess I'll go home now, woo, ooh
Wow
Who knew that I'd feel the way that I feel right now?
So head over heel for something so real and now
Our love is a ghost and that's how it goes, huh
Guess I'll go home now

Different cities
Different time zones
Distant memories
Of promises we
Made when we were somewhere else
Now here we are an ocean apart
And we talk less and less, mmh

I hate that you're not coming with me
And I hate that I'm not indifferent
I want you and I don't wanna share
So there
If we got feelings then why the game
If both lose then who's the winner?
