

Could You Be?

Matt Bianco

Could you, could you?
Could you, could you?
Could you be?
Could you, could you?
Could you, could you?
Could you be?

Am I just daydreaming when I think of you
Are you something I will never find?
Do I really know where my life's going to?
Searching for the feelings that I hide

(Could you be?)
Let me show you what I'm feeling
I'm the one you can believe in
I'll be there for you forever
We can face the world together
Tell me what you feel for me
Tell me from the heart of could you be
Could you be

Could you, could you?
Could you, could you?
Could you be?

There's been many times I really needed you
If you were here with me what would I say
Could I give you all the love I wanted to
Or would I turn around and walk away?

(Could you be?)
Let me show you what I'm feeling
I'm the one you can believe in
I'll be there for you forever
We can face the world together
Tell me what you feel for me
Tell me from the heart of could you be
Could you be

One love, we can't let a thing come between us
Don't hide from what we can become
We'll find everything we wanted together
I'll be there for you if you'll be there for me

Could you be?

One love, we can't let a thing come between us
Don't hide from what we can become
We'll find everything we wanted together
I'll be there for you, will you be there for me?

(Could you be?)
Let me show you what I'm feeling
I'm the one you can believe in
I'll be there for you forever
We can face the world together
Tell me what you feel for me

Tell me from the heart of could you be
Could you be

Could you be my one and only
Save me from a life so lonely
Will you always be around
Pick me up when I fall down
Can you tell me honestly
Will you be there for me
Could you be? Could you be?
