Falling

Matt Bianco

My head is saying don't change it
My heart is saying don't break it

Did you think I would leave you falling
Even if I waited to
Did you think I would leave you falling
I'd never turn my back on you
That is true

My mind is spinning don't phase it
My soul is searching don't blame it

Did you think I would leave you falling
Even if I wanted to
Did you think I would leave you falling
I'd never turn my back on you
Did you think I would leave you falling
Even if I wanted to
Did you think I would leave you falling
I'd never turn my back on you
And it's true

The fantasy is fading
The legacy is ending

Did you think I would leave you falling
Even if I wanted to
Did you think I would leave you falling
I'd never turn my back on you
Did you think I would leave you falling
Even if I wanted to
Did you think I would leave you falling
I'd never turn my back on you

Falling
Falling

My head is saying don't change it
My heart is saying don't break it

Did you think I would leave you falling
Even if I wanted to
Did you think I would leave you falling
I'd never turn my back on you
Did you think I would leave you falling
Even if I wanted to
Did you think I would leave you falling
I'd never turn my back on you

Falling
Falling
Falling (did you think I would leave you falling)
Falling (turn my back on you)
