

Love Just Passed Me By

Matt Bianco

Baby you were mine for a moment in time
Never meant to stare but your eyes held me there
Baby make me stay don't you look away
Come into my life, bring me love, bring me love

Is this something that I'm dreaming of
Do you feel the way I do
Is this just a passing fantasy
Or can we be in ecstasy

Never gonna feel so right
Never gonna hold you tight
Never gonna be the same
Never gonna know your name
Love just passed me by

Images of you trying to get through
I've gotta find a way that I hope and pray
You can make it right no more lonely nights
Waiting for the time when your love will be mine

Is this something that I'm dreaming of
Do you feel the way I do
Is this just a passing fantasy
Or can we be in ecstasy

Never gonna feel so right
Never gonna hold you tight
Never gonna be the same
Never gonna know your name
Love just passed me by

Could it be I'm just dreaming
There'll never be a you and I
So why do I keep believing
Love just passed me by

If there's something that I really want
Is just to see how love could be

Never gonna feel so right
Never gonna hold you tight
Never gonna be the same
Never gonna know your name

Never gonna feel so right
Never gonna hold you tight
Never gonna be the same
Never gonna know your name

Never gonna feel so right
Never gonna hold you tight
Never gonna be the same
Never gonna know your name

Never gonna feel so right
