

Masquerader

Matt Bianco

She moves through the shadows
Dancing on whispers
Behind the smoke and mirrors
She fakes it to make it
A world of painted dreams
It's just an empty charade

Now I know it was just an illusion
Stole my heart now I'm lost in confusion
Never know who you are

Masquerader
Masquerader

She always concealed it
Never revealed it
Behind a mask of deception
She with stories of silk and gold
Wrapped me around her soul
A pawn in her evil game

Time will tell there is nowhere to hide it
Then your lies can no longer deny it
Never know who you are

Now I know it was just an illusion
Stole my heart now I'm lost in confusion
Never know who you are

Masquerader
Masquerader

I know your schemes
Of painted dreams
I see right through your
Smoke and mirrors
I cut your strings
My heart can sing
Why do you play those
Evil games

Time will tell there is nowhere to hide it
Then your lies can no longer deny it
Never know who you are
