

Undercover

Matt Bianco

Darkness is falling
Your shadow's long
Wait at the rendez-vous
There from the distance
A black Sedan
Lights flashing twice on you

Will the truth be known?
You've done everything you can
Is their cover blown?
You know you're a dead man
East meets West again
Will this madness end?

Undercover
You always look behind you
Undercover
Planning your every move
Undercover
Shoot and then ask questions
Oh, when the stakes are so high
And you play with your life
If you lose

X sets the code
But you need the sign
Now that the deal is closed
Cases exchanged
And the contents find
Who's running out of luck?

Turn and walk away
You've done everything you can
You know you are a dead man
Hear a distant crash
As the bomb goes off

Undercover
You always look behind you
Undercover
Planning your every move
Undercover
Shoot and then ask questions
Oh, when the stakes are so high
And you play with your life
If you lose

East meets West again
Will this madness end?

Undercover
Undercover
Undercover

Oh, when the stakes are so high
If you lose

Oh, when the stakes are so high
If you lose
Undercover
If you lose
Undercover
Undercover
Undercover
Yeah, undercover
