

Don't Be So Shy

Matt Cardle

A simple night, looking to the crowd
It feels like home
I'm out tonight and I can see your face
Just you alone
You've got me diving off the edge
You've got me diving off the edge

Change your life
Don't you know a heart can drop as quick as stone
I'm in your light and I think God is the only way we go, yeah
You've got me diving off the edge
You've got me diving off the edge

But you give me the feeling, yeah
I have never loved before
Now you have got me diving off the edge
And baby you are the reason, yeah
I have never prayed before
And now you have got me diving off the edge

And now I'm coming you, ooh, yeah
No don't be so shy, say you're mine
Now I'm coming you, ooh, yeah
No don't be so shy, say you're mine

Your crystal eyes take me a place I've never known
As we magnetize, I could [?] the skin right off my bones, yeah
You've got me diving off the edge

You've got me diving off the edge

But you give me the feeling, yeah
I have never loved before
Now you have got me diving off the edge
And baby you are the reason, yeah
I have never prayed before
And now you have got me diving off the edge

And now I'm coming you, ooh, yeah
No don't be so shy, say you're mine
Now I'm coming you, ooh, yeah
No don't be so shy, say you're mine

But you give me the feeling
And baby you are the reason

But you give me the feeling, yeah
I have never loved before
Now you have got me diving off the edge
And baby you are the reason, yeah
I have never prayed before
And now you have got me diving off the edge

And now I'm coming you, ooh, yeah
No don't be so shy, say you're mine
Now I'm coming you, ooh, yeah
No don't be so shy, say you're mine

You are the reason
