

Aren't You Excited

Matt Champion

I want the truth from
How could you hide it?
Why didn't you do some
Something about it?

'Cause you're lookin' at me like a cake
But I shoulda seen you we ate

I want the truth from
How come you're hiding?
Why didn't you do some
Something about it?

'Cause you're lookin' a little bit different
From that pretty face I know
All the little things start to go unseen
I tell you I miss 'em the most

Aren't you excited?
Aren't you excited?
Aren't you excited?
Aren't you excited?
I wanna be a part of your world
But I'm stuck
I'm stuck inside a video screen

I ain't satisfied with the way it is
I wish I could trade a place
And I sympathize, and I'm pullin' clothes
And I wish I could kiss your face

Aren't you excited?
I give you tough love
And you used to like it

When will you understand
I'm just trying to make amends?
Aren't you excited?
When I'm right there in your face
Why aren't you excited?
If you say we had a good thing
Why would you fight it?
Is it time? If so, to remind me
You're smoking every night
Would you light it?
I'm on the wrong way, going ninety
And we tried it, to fix things but there's problems
And I'm wishin' that we got it

I wanna be a part of your world
But I'm stuck (But I'm stuck)
I'm stuck inside a video screen
Are you excited? (Fuck)
Are you excited?
Are you excited?
Are you excited?
Are you excited?

Are you excited?
Are you excited?
