

Lookin' up at my face
Perched on my thighs again
Curlin' every strand with elate, mm
Workin' out all the kinks
Come on, what you waiting on?
Save it 'til after we leave

Pick me off the floor
I've fallen hard again
With all the clothes on your bed
Like Sunday waterfall
Drippin' down on your skin
Fill up the space in my head
My head

Why don't you ask me out anymore?
You don't say a thing
And I mean everything I say
Sometimes you're a bore
You don't do a thing
Why you mad all day?

You breakin' my heart too much
Why you gotta do that?
Why you put me through that all the time?
Can't you take a hint, my love?
The spark is gone and I don't think it's coming back
'Cause I miss ya, kiss ya, wish ya cared some more
Something changing deep inside your core
What the hell stopped making you love me?
Mm, mm-mm

(Ooh-ooh)
You made me laugh
And you made me cry
(Ooh-ooh)
You made me laugh
And you made me cry

Why don't you ask me out anymore?
You don't say a thing
And I mean everything I say
Sometimes you're a bore
You don't do a thing
Why you mad all day?

I'll go wherever you go
All day

I'll go wherever you go
If that's what it takes

You made me laugh
And you made me cry
