

You cut me off from the washing machine
The same time I was pickin' my teeth
Say something that will comfort me
'Cuz its all I got
You piss me off from the back seat
The same time I was changin' the tune
Say something that will make me smile
'Cuz its all I want (all I want)

Something tells me that you want me under your spell (I-I)
I know you see me
Want to drag me to hell (I-I)
It's only right you're the one to take me down (take me, take me down)
It serves you right you're the one that stays around

I want a home run
If it's all right
I finally owned up
And it's alright
I told you all I could
Wash my hands, brush your hair by the fire
It's hard enough to act jovial all the time
When there's something stuck inside
What first graced me about the things you do
Is no matter what it is, I'll always love you
There's something special about it
I swear by it
'Cuz it's all I got

Something tells me that you want me under your spell (I-I)
I know you see me
Want to drag me to hell (I-I)
It's only right you're the one to take me down (take me, take me down)
It serves you right you're the one that stays around
(Under your spell)
(Drag me to hell)
It's only right you're the one to take me down (take me, take me down)
It serves you right you're the one that stays around

I want a home run
If it's alright
