Brother

Matt Corby

Ooh ooh ooh... Sleep now under my skin Make sure you'll try to Conjure the wind And ease my mind Ooh ooh ooh... Somebody call out to your brother He's calling out your name Ooh ooh ooh Hiding under the covers With no one else to blame Ooh ooh ooh You couldn't help out your own neighbor You couldn't tell it to his face You were fucked up by the blame You cower in the corner Confide in your father Let it out and say Let it pass away Sleep now under my skin Make sure you try to Conjure the wind And ease my mind And I said Ooh ooh ooh... Somebody call out to your brother He's calling out your name Ooh ooh ooh Hiding under the covers With no one else to blame Ooh ooh ooh You couldn't help out your own neighbor You couldn't tell it to his face You were fucked up by the blame You cower in the corner Confide in your father Let it out and say You cower in the corner Confide in your father Let it break your day Let it out and say Wait there Pull yourself out of this state dear Acknowledge you were a fake here From there on you might just grow Oh oh oh

Somebody call out to your brother He's calling out your name Ooh ooh ooh Hiding under the covers With no one else to blame Ooh ooh ooh Oh, you couldn't help out your own neighbor You couldn't tell it to his face You were fucked up by the blame
