

Coming Around

Matt Costa

Coming around
You're coming around
Coming around
You're coming around

I've seen those selfish ones, drown in your love
But I have only loved too and they've led me to you
Now all I really want you to do is keep coming around
Coming around, you're coming around

I might be making a fool of myself
I'm losing sleep but when I dream it's of you girl
I've seen those clueless ones mistreat your love
I've seen your only one mistreat your love

Are you beginning to see
You already have all of me
And all my feelings are growing stronger
Coming around
You're coming around
Coming around

Now I'm just stuck in a world in my head
I'm losing sleep but when I dream
It's of you girl, you girl

And all my feelings are growing stronger
Since you're coming around
You're coming around
You're coming around
