

Let Love Heal

Matt Costa

Now I close my eyes and hope you hear
All my psychic prayers saying let love heal
Did you hear me talking in your head
Yea that was me you spoke with
From a northern land

Saying let love heal
Let love heal let love heal
And I will wait right here

I have made mistakes in my life
They take shape inside my lover's eyes
I can feel you weighing on my chest
But I'm alone tonight hoping you hear this

Saying let love heal
Let love heal let love heal
And I will wait right here
I will wait right here

When you close your eyes am I still there
Between those moonlit murmurs
In your ears
Light a match to see there's still a spark
Casting shadows on your tarot cards

Saying let love heal
Let love heal let love heal
And I will wait right here

Let love heal
Let love heal let love heal
And I will wait right here

I will wait right here
