

All Because Of You

Matt Dusk

I still remember
You in September
Walking through embers
Of summer days
Newly together
As happy as ever
All because of you

One thing is certain
Pull back the curtain
Let's show the world
That our dreams came true
Life has new meaning
We dance on the ceiling
All because of you

And while we're swaying
The music's playing
The sound of a lover's refrain
It's our ever after
Through joy and the laughter
So hold me forever and a day

On this occasion
This celebration
Is of your beauty
That never fades
Call me old fashioned
I know true love happened
All because of you

So on this occasion
This celebration
Is of your beauty
That never fades
Call me old fashioned
I know true love happened
All because of you
