

I'll Find You

Matt Dusk

It's the loneliest place in the world
Does it have to be
It's a place with the prettiest girls
Do they notice me?

'Cause I can't help falling in love
On every corner I turn
Then I laugh at myself with a smile
Will I ever learn

Maybe I was unlucky before
And if I dream a little bit more
On a day I will open a door
And I'll find you

On a subway that I shoulda missed
You were standing there
Lookin' at you just felt like a kiss
I just had to stare
The wheels of the train roll away
Through the glass you wink and you wave
Now my heart will be looking always
And I'll find you

Maybe I was unlucky before
And if I dream a little bit more
On a day I will open a door
And I'll find you

On a subway that I shoulda missed
You were standing there
Lookin' at you just felt like a kiss
I just had to stare
The wheels of the train roll away
Through the glass you wink and you wave
Now my heart will be looking always
And I'll find you
