

Could've Been

Matt Hammitt

Walking the line between faith and doubt
Caught in the middle, I could not step out
Don't know what I waited for
I was so insecure
My feet were stuck and they would not move
Knew what they wanted but they could not do
I heard a voice in the waves
Daring me to be brave

Oh, I was waiting on a spiritual wind
Waiting for someone to say when
Almost wasted my whole life
For what could've been, should've been, would've been
I knew I was made for more
To live every day like a new beginning
And I thank God now, that dead end is what could have been
You saved me from what could've been

I had my eye out on everyone else
I'd say someday I'll be there as well
I'll join the movers and shakers
Once I get a few things straight
Oh, it's crazy how the time flies, I just watched it go by Grass was growing greener, but I was on the wrong side
Losing my way
Wishing that the world would change

Oh, I was waiting on a spiritual wind
Waiting for someone to say when
Almost wasted my whole life
For what could've been, should've been, would've been
I knew I was made for more
To live every day like a new beginning
And I thank God now, that dead end is what could have been
You saved me from what could've been

Oh, I don't wanna give up
I don't wanna give in
The life that you gave me
To say that I lived it
I don't wanna give up
I don't wanna give in
The life that you gave me
I say that I lived it

Oh, I was waiting on a spiritual wind
Waiting for someone to say when
Almost wasted my whole life
For what could've been, should've been, would've been
I knew I was made for more
To live every day like a new beginning
And I thank God now, that dead end is what could have been
You saved me from what could've been
You saved me from what could've been
You saved me from what could've been
You saved me from what could've been
You saved me from what could've been