Try

Matt Hammitt

It's okay to feel angry
It's okay to feel heaviness
It's okay to feel insecure

And it's okay to ask questions
Turn your hurt to the heavens
It's okay to wonder what it's all for

He's not afraid of your doubt
So go ahead, let it all out
Nothing can shake Him
Nothing can break Him
Say it out loud

It's okay if it's hard to wait
It's okay if you're out of strength
If you don't know how to pray anymore

Oh, He's not afraid of your doubt
So go ahead, let it all out
Nothing can shake Him
Nothing can break Him
Say it out loud

Lift up your voice to the sky
Just scream it out asking Him why
Nothing can shake Him
Nothing can break Him
Go ahead try, go ahead try

Oh try, go ahead try
Let your pain light up the dark
Like the stars in the sky

The gain, the stakes
The love, the hate
The joy, the loss
The give, the take
Try, go ahead cry out

He's not afraid of your doubt
Go ahead let it all out

He's not afraid of your doubt
So, go ahead, let it all out
Nothing can shake Him
Nothing can break Him
Say it out loud

Lift up your voice to the sky
Just scream it out asking Him why
Nothing can shake Him
Nothing can break Him
Go ahead try, go ahead try
