

You Can't Stop Me

Matt Hammitt

Keeping my heart at arm's length
Pushing me so far away
Keeping my kindness at bay
Tell me who hurt you

Every time that you think
You'll be too much for me to take
You give me a reason to stay
To see mountains move

You won't let anyone love you
You won't let anyone love you
You won't let anyone love you
But you can't stop me

You think that we're islands apart
But I am the same as you are
A child lost under these scars
With so much to prove

You won't let anyone love you
You won't let anyone love you
You won't let anyone love you
But you can't stop me

You won't let anyone tell you
You won't let anyone help you
You won't let anyone love you
But you can't stop me

And if you don't think I'm afraid
That loving you could bring me pain
Oh, I know that my heart could break
It's a chance I'll take

You won't let anyone love you
You won't let anyone love you
You won't let anyone love you
But you can't stop me

And you won't let anyone see you
But I know that one day I'll reach you
You won't let anyone love you
But you can't stop me
