

Begin Again

Matt Hires

I want to begin again
Set sail and pull up my anchors
Forget about all of the dangers and just take it in
I want to make hope, my friend
Shake the dust and start over
Before some sad son of a bitch told us all good things end

I want to begin
I want to begin again
And again and again and again
Oh I want to begin again
And again and again and again and again and again

I want to begin again
Drop all the pretensions and labels
Kiss you under the table like when we were kids
I want to know love won't end
We can take it back where we started
Before all of our friends got divorced and we turned into cynics

I want to begin again
And again and again and again
Oh I want to begin again
And again and again and again and again and again

I want to begin again
So many mistakes left behind me
But I'm not gonna let them define me but make me a better man

Cause I want to begin again
And again and again and again
Oh I want to begin again
And again and again and again

Just want to begin again
And again and again and again and again
I want to begin
