

Fire & Dust

Matt Hires

You say you wanna leave
You say you wanna leave it behind, behind
You're tired of all the feelings
Tired of all the fear that you hide inside

Too much is too much
And not enough is not enough
Like fire and dust
Too much is too much
Too much is too much
When it's getting hard
When it's falling apart

Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight, give up on tonight
Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight, don't give up on this fight

You tell me that you're burning
You tell me that you're burning the light inside
And all the smoke is leaving
Oh all the smoke is leaving you blind, so blind

Too much is too much
And not enough is not enough
Like fire and dust
Too much is too much
Too much is too much
When it's getting hard
When it's falling apart

Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight, give up on tonight
Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight, don't give up on this fight
Cause I've been where you are

Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight
Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight, give up on tonight
Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight, give up on tonight
Hey now, hey now
Don't give up on tonight, give up on tonight
Don't give up on tonight, give up on tonight
Don't give up on this fight
