

Miles Past Midnight

Matt Hires

Heart, heart, tell the truth
I've been holding out too long
Yeah, this ain't nothin' new
I know what I feel and it's wrong
And I'm watching while you're waiting, oh oh
I'm tired of hesitating

Darlin' ooh, I'm tearing it down
I've been living in rewind
Following the same signs
Darlin' ooh, let's turn it around
And I'll see you in the sunlight
Miles past midnight

Hey, hey, you don't deserve
A second more lost on me
I've been caught here behind the curb
Living on some guarantee
The roads I could've taken, oh oh
I'm tired of hesitating

Darlin' ooh, I'm tearing it down
I've been living in rewind
Following the same signs
Darlin' ooh, let's turn it around
And I'll see you in the sunlight
Miles past midnight

Love, love looking at me
Make the shadows melt away
Oh what, where, who will I be
Stranded on the lost highway
But tonight is for the taking, oh oh
And the past is for erasing

Darlin' ooh, I'm tearing it down
I've been living in rewind
Following the same signs
Darlin' ooh, let's turn it around
And I'll see you in the sunlight
Miles past midnight
(Ooh)
We'll be miles past midnight
(Ooh)
We'll be miles past midnight
