

Killin' Me

Matt & Kim

You're killin' me, kill', killin' me
I can only stay up so long Without goin' out my mind
Feelin' everything unwind
And i see the way you move
Some would even disapprove
All because they've been removed
Don't need em anymore

We'll stay inside
Days will go by
Never stood a chance

I can only wait so long (so long) I've no sense of right and wrong
When you're on top of me!

(Hey!)

My life flashed before my eyes
You kill me hands on my thighs
If death is this then I want to die

(Hey!)

(Hey!)
