

Where Do We Go From Here?

Matt & Kim

When it's gone too far, yeah
I don't know where we go from here
Can't see the north star
I don't know where we go from here
Things turned into a hole you cancel
Things turned into a long year
Some words you can't take it back, no
I don't know where we go from here

(Doing these stupid things)
[*laughing*]
(Ah, fuck, that hurts)
(You're doing a really good job)

Sometimes I could, sometimes I could almost laugh
I lay awake from a nightmare
We're in a low gear but driving fast
I don't know where we go from here

If a war is what you want
I'll volunteer [?]
Drop your bombs on my house
I'll rebuild, I'll rebuild every ounce
And every tear you put in me
Only shows what's underneath
Just set my watch, for a world in time
Look at the hands, I'll be fine

I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine
