

Go Easy

Matt Maeson

My own reflection's making me sick
I've been this way since my faith quit
And I never asked for this pain, it's taking me over
It's taking me over, it's making me colder

If I broke it would you quit
Is this heartache we can fix
In the morning when we wake
When I'm sober, would you stay
If I broke it, would you quit
Is this heartache we can fix
In the morning when we wake
When I'm sober

Please just go easy on me baby
Go easy on me baby
Can you understand it
I can't keep living for the damage
Please just go easy on me baby
Go easy on me baby
Can you understand it
I can't keep living for the damage

My own deception is moving too quick
I tried to love and I lost it
And I never wanted to change, it's taking me over
It's taking me over, it's making me colder

If I broke it would you quit
Is this heartache we can fix
In the morning when we wake
When I'm sober, would you stay
If I broke it, would you quit
Is this heartache we can fix
In the morning when we wake
When I'm sober

Please just go easy on me baby
Go easy on me baby
Can you understand it
I can't keep living for the damage
Please just go easy on me baby
Go easy on me baby
Can you understand it
I can't keep living for the damage

Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me

I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love

I know love

Please just go easy on me baby
Go easy on me baby
Can you understand it
I can't keep living for the damage
Please just go easy on me baby
Go easy on me baby
Can you understand it
I can't keep living for the damage

Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love

I know love
