

I Know You

Matt Maeson

I don't wanna piss you off
But you know we need to talk
You been acting real real strange
I'm analyzing every day

Yeah I know you
You're in trouble
Oh what am I to do?

Is it too late to love you and
Too much to tell you, I'm
Not really sure that I'm able?

Tell me how the fuck you feel
I know you ain't the type to heal
Come on brother throw that hit
It doesn't have to end like this

And I know you
Oh you're trouble
Oh what am I to do?

Is it too late to love you and
Too much to tell you, I'm
Not really sure that I'm able?
Do you think it's past you? It's
Not like I could ask you, I've
Covered up the wound 'cause it's all blue

And we're out in the street now
Saying things we'd have never said
If it weren't for your hunger
'Cause you've tasted the popular bread

Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh

Is it too late to love you and
Too much to tell you, I'm
Not really sure that I'm able?
Do you think it's past you? It's
Not like I could ask you, I've
Covered up the wound 'cause it's all blue
