

Better Off Broken

Matt Maher

What good's a heart if it don't break
What good's a soul if it don't ache
What good are eyes if they can't see
Do you see me
Do you see me

Love came crashing in, oh bombs away
Blowing up my world from the fallout I can say
I'm better off broken
I did all I could to run away
But now I'm giving up
If it's the only way I'll stay
If it's the only way I'll stay
Then I'm better off broken

What good is grace if it's not free
What good's a cure if it's not healing
What good is faith without a need
It's You I need, it's You I need

Love came crashing in, oh bombs away
Blowing up my world from the fallout I can say
I'm better off broken
I did all I could to run away
But now I'm giving up
If it's the only way I stay
Then I'm better off broken
I'm better off, I'm better off broken
I'm better off, I'm better off broken

And I know that you can hear me
When I'm crying out for help
Help

Love came crashing in, oh bombs away
Blowing up my world from the fallout I can say
I'm better off broken
I did all I could to run away
But now I'm giving up
If it's the only way I stay
I'm better off broken
