

You are enthroned in heaven
Beauty unlike I've ever seen
No eye has seen
You are enthroned in heaven
I am a sinner on my knees
Woe is me

Holy, You are holy
There is none beside Thee
And all Your works shall praise Your name
Singing holy, You are holy

Your voice is a burning ember
One touch and I'm forever changed
I'm not the same
Your voice is a burning ember
Each time I hear You call my name
I'm not the same

Holy, You are holy
There is none beside Thee
And all Your works shall praise Your name
Singing holy, You are holy
Singing holy, You are holy

I am ruined by Your kindness
I am broken by Your love
I surrender my resistance
To the righteous heart of God
I am ruined by Your kindness
I am broken by Your love
I surrender my resistance
To the righteous heart of God

Holy, You are holy
There is none beside Thee
And all Your works shall praise Your name
Singing holy, You are holy
Holy, You are holy
Merciful and mighty
And all Your works shall praise Your name
Singing holy, You are holy
Singing holy, You are holy
