

Into Your Hands

Matt Maher

Got my share of regrets
Like a weight around my neck
Lord, I'm praying to forget
And to remember all Your promises

You have all my heart
All that is broken
I surrender all
My life into Your hands

Some days I second guess
That Your love is permanent
But You left Your mark upon my soul
Jesus, at the cross You made me whole

You have all my heart
All that is broken
I surrender all
My life into Your hands
You have all my love
All that I'm holding
I surrender all
My life into Your hands

All to Jesus I surrender
All to Him I freely give
All to Jesus I surrender
All to Him I freely give

You have all my heart
All that is broken
I surrender all
My life into Your hands
You have all my love
All that I'm holding
I surrender all
My life into Your hands
My life into Your hands
My life into Your hands
