

Only Good Will Grow

Matt Maher

Only good will grow
Now and always
Holy afterglow
Never contained

Call this place hallowed ground
Nothing is forsaken now
Only good will grow

Only light will shine
On this sacred garden
Every season new life
Death has long departed

I'll plant you a tree
Roots have wings
Your children will forever sing
Only good will grow
Only good will grow

All the joy and the pain
Times they change
But the ties that will bind us remain
Only good will grow

But the ties that will bind us remain
Only good will grow
Only good will grow
