

Timeless

Matt Maher

You are majesty
You are eternity
You are infinite
You are fidelity

You are the great unknown
And yet Your name is known
You are the only way
You are the living stone

You are above reproach
You are beyond fame
You are beyond the earth
That trembles at Your name

Jesus, Jesus
yesterday, today and forever

You are the Word made flesh
You are Immanuel
You are the Son of Man
You are the great I AM

The mountains melt like wax
Your will it is command
You shape and form our hearts
Like clay to potter's hands

You are the righteous judge
You are the threshing floor
You are the silence in
The middle of the storm
