

Wedding Ring

Matt Maher

Couldn't see beyond my tears down the aisle
If I could I would've stayed there for a while
Though the years can't dim the light that's in your smile
Past the veil of honesty and innocence
Thought I knew the road ahead I must confess
Highest highs and lowest lows
The worst and best
For rich or poor
With you I am forever blessed

Said I did
And I do
I always will
Still willing to
Say I'm sorry
For the times I should
When you're letting go and holding everything
The magic in a wedding ring

You're my Heaven when we're walking through hell
Not another soul could know me this well
In the mystery of what the time will tell
Love is learning how to stay right where you fell

Said I did
And I do
I always will
Still willing to
Say I'm sorry
For the times I should
When you're letting go and holding everything
The magic in a wedding ring

Let the moment linger
Wrap it round my finger
Let the moment linger
Let the moment

Said I did
And I do
I always will
Still willing to
Say I'm sorry
For the times I should
When you're letting go and holding everything
The magic in a wedding ring

Let the moment linger
Wrap it round my finger
Let the moment linger
Wrap it round my finger
