

Looking

Matt Maltese

I wanna be a person, I wanna be apart
I wanna do things in the back of your car
I wanna be nothing, wanna be a star
I wanna find a reason to get up at all

I keep on looking for something that isn't there
I keep on looking for something that isn't there

I wanna be a darling, I wanna be a fraud
I wanna take my head out of the oven
I wanna be a terror, I wanna be stoned
I wanna be more than a guy on the couch

I keep on looking for something that isn't there
I keep on looking for something that isn't there

I keep on looking for something that isn't there
I keep on looking
