

Shoe

Matt Maltese

I wanna walk around you like a child in a museum
I wanna be beside you like a guide at the Colosseum
I don't even have to say these words, but I do

You're my right shoe, I'm your left shoe
We stand together
You're my right shoe, I'm your left shoe
We stand together

Everybody is a sheep in the club tonight, we are very crazy for you
Would you take a look at me? 'Cause we fit just right, I'm eleven, you're eleven too
And I don't even have to say these words, but I do

You're my right shoe, I'm your left shoe
We stand together
You're my right shoe, I'm your left shoe
We stand together

And I wanna be a nudge on your back
When you hold my hand I could melt
I declare it's a tragic world without you
There are a million ways to do
Why does it hurt so much to smile?
Time is a construct, I can only care beside you

You're my right shoe (you're my right shoe), I'm your left shoe
(I'm your left shoe)
We stand together
(I'm your left shoe)
We stand together
(I'm your left shoe)
We stand together
(I'm your left shoe)
We stand together
