

Tangled

Matt Maltese

I can see you blushing
When you meet his eyes
I can hear you gently weeping
Tryna make up your mind

Please don't give me long explanations
You've done nothing wrong
It's not a crime to want two at once

Looks like we're tangled
Just a little tangled
I love you so, he loves you too, you love us both
Now our hearts are truly tangled
Just a little tangled
I'll let you go
So hard to do
Everyone knows
God peaked making you
And who you gonna choose? Who you gonna choose?

Picture this, you and me and him
In a web so deep, I can't un-spin
How I wish to drown him in the sea
But I've sworn to myself to let love free

Let us be tangled
Just a little tangled
I love you so, he loves you too, and you love us both
Now our hearts are truly tangled
Just a little tangled
I'll let you go
So hard to do
Everyone knows
God peaked making you
And who you gonna choose? Who you gonna choose?

Who you gonna choose? Who you gonna choose?
Ah-ah, ah-ah
Who you gonna choose?
When it comes to him or me, who?
