

Ur Not Alone

Matt Mays

Hold out your hand for a bird to land on
To talk some sense into you
Brings a tear to your eye
Like some gone summer
Fading back into view

You try so hard just to get it back, but what for?
You're not alone anymore

My stereo plays only on rainy days
When the bluebirds gig underground
My gravity sways just like broken lovers
Dancing to the sound
Of the Everlys

You try so hard just to get it back, but what for?
You're not alone anymore

Protect yourself from all known reality
Use imagination to the best of your ability
You're not...
You're already real, you don't have to pretend to be
Why are we so attracted to the enemy?
You're not alone anymore

You're not alone anymore
