

Cahuenga Blvd

Matt McAndrew

We could go paint this city red
But we're spending eighteen hours in bed
Nothing that we can't order in
There's something about your balcony
The way that the world walks down your street
The silence inside me screams we've got everything we could ever need

Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are
Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are

The neighbors are knocking on the wall
T-shirts are falling on the floor
Even the angels sing we've got everything we could ever need

Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are
Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are

People say we'll burn and fade away but whatever
No one ever told us to decide to live forever
Sick and tired of hearing that it's always now or never
It's never now or never
It's never now or never

Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are
Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are

Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are
Cahuenga blvd
Our friends are friends with stars
And they know who we are

We could go paint this city red
But we're spending eighteen hours in bed
Nothing that we can't order in
